TRAIN WAS DITCHED

Fearful Wreck on the Illinois Central Early Today.

Two Were Killed and Many More Were Injured Near Memphis.

WORK OF TRAIN WRECKERS

Harry Norton, engineer, Memphis, killed.

John McDaniel, fireman, Water Valley, Miss., fatally injured.

J. H. Meyrick, baggage master, Fulton, Ky., fatally injured.

Frank Eltridge, mail clerk, slightly injured.

Benjamin Davis, mail clerk, slightly injured.

Train No. 1, known as the "Cannon Ball," on the Illinois Central railroad, from Memphis to New Orleans, carrying eleven coaches, five of which were Pullman sleeping cars, was derailed at Deerpeter Station, four miles south of Memphis, this morning at 12:30 o'clock.

Engineer Norton was killed instantly, and a negro fireman was pinned under the overturned engine. Several cars were telescoped.

The signal light indicated that the track was clear, hence the engineer did not slacken as he approached.

A number of freight cars were standing on the side track. Into these the locomotive crashed.

The engine was completely demolished. Fragments of iron and steel flew in every direction. The baggage car and mail car were piled in a heap. The combined buffet and library car was split from end to end. One of the Pullman sleepers was turned at right angles to the track and another was partially overturned.

There were 65 passengers on the train, many of them going through from Cincinnati to New Orleans. The passengers were fearfully shaken up and will never forget their experience. The train was in charge of Conductor T. J. Binford, who is authority for the statement that none of the passengers were injured.

Engineer Norton was killed almost instantly. He was caught between the locomotive and the tender and his life crashed out almost before he realized what had happened. The fireman, McDaniel, a negro, was imprisoned under the ponderous locomotive, which was overturned, receiving fatal injuries.

Baggage master Meyrick received injuries from which he died today. Eltridge and Davis, the mail clerks, who were on their car, were severely but not fatally bruised.

The wreck is believed to have been the work of train wreckers. The fact that the switch was left open, while the signal light indicated safety, strengthens the theory that it was the work of evil-minded people.

EXPLOSION IN A TUNNEL.

ELUDED PARENTS

Couple From Tyler, Ky., Married at Marion, Ill.

Relatives Expected They Would Leave By Buggy, But They Didn't.

The runaway couple, Mr. Gottlieb Koerner and Miss Phronie Herzog, who left home yesterday afternoon to be married, succeeded in getting the knot tied in Marion, Ill.

The young people live at Tyler, Ky., above Mechanicsburg, and the bride is only fifteen years old. The girl apparently started for school yesterday morning, but instead met the young man and they eloped.

The couple first bought tickets to Paris, Tenn., and the bride went to the home of a friend near the N. O. and St. L. depot and did not reach the depot until after the train had left.

Later they went to Illinois, and were married at Marion.

It is told that the bride's brother not long ago intercepted a letter to her containing money, and instructing her how to leave for Metropolis. They were to go in a buggy and the young lady's family thought that this is the way they would go when they started.

Instead they took the train and thus successfully eluded relatives. They returned this morning and are now boarding with friends.

A Brother of Roadmaster Pat Galvin Killed at Rosine.

Attempted to Board a Freight Train and Was Run Over.

Mr. Tom Galvin, a section foreman on the Illinois Central, who lived at Beaver Dam, was killed yesterday afternoon at Rosine, about 5 o'clock, while attempting to board freight train No. 194, east bound.

He fell under the wheels and was horribly crushed and mangled. His legs were mashed off and his body mutilated so badly that he was hardly recognizable. The remains were taken to Central City to await the arrival of relatives. ### WOUNDS WERE FATAL

Tobe Williams Died From Pistol Shot Wound Last Night.

Henry, Donald, the Alleged Murderer, Has Not Yet Been Captured by Police.

INQUEST THIS AFTERNOON

Tobe Williams, colored, the teamster shot at Mr. Cliff Burnett's stable on Madison street between Fourth and Fifth, night before last by Henry Donald, died last night about 1 o'clock at his home on South Eighth street.

It was thought from the first that his wounds would prove fatal, as he was shot in the stomach and his intestines were cut in seven places.

The operation performed by attending physicians afforded temporary relief, but the victim began gradually to fail early last evening, and shortly after midnight succumbed.

He was about 30 years old and leaves only several brothers and sisters. He had been married but had separated from his wife.

Donald, the alleged murderer, is believed by the police to still be hiding in Paducah. They say if he ever leaves the city they will be sure to get him, for descriptions have been sent out in all directions.

Coroner Peel will this afternoon hold an inquest at the home of the deceased on South Eighth street.

The jury, after deliberating about an hour and a half, came to the conclusion that the killing was done in sudden heat and passion and returned a verdict for manslaughter.

PRANKS OF A COAL CAR WHEEL.

BREAKS OFF, WRECKS A TRAIN, AND BURNS UP A STATION.

Port Jervis, Jan. 23.—A wheel came off a car of an east-bound coal train as it passed the Erie station at Hoadleys on the Wyoming Division Sunday afternoon, and several cars were derailed.

The wheel rolled over the ground, burst through the station door and knocked over the stove. Immediately afterward one car fell against two others standing on a siding and all three crashed into the station. The stove set the station afire, and it was consumed, as was much of the wreckage.

When the wreck occurred D. E. Sherwood, an operator, was in his office in the station. He heard the warning of a train man just in time to escape before the structure fell.

PLANS COURT IN WASHINGTON.

PRINCE OUPID, DELEGATE FROM HAWAII, WANTS A ROYAL ESTABLISHMENT.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 23.—Word from Honolulu says Washington will be amazed when Prince Oupid, delegate to congress from Hawaii, appears to take his seat in the next congress. This favorite nephew of Queen Liliuokalani proposes to go in regal state. The Hawaiian legislature, when it meets in February, will be asked to appropriate $10,000 to add to his own means to aid in keeping up a princely establishment in Washington.

His purpose is to have a regal court which will perpetuate some of the old-time glories of the Hawaiian monarchy, and thus call attention to one of the last in the royal line. The prince will have a private secretary, as well as gentlemen and ladies in waiting, and his plans include receptions and feasts in the Hawaiian style.

THE STATE PRISONS

Their Condition Fully Shown in Late Reports.

Warden at Eddyville Says New Cell Room Must Be Provided Soon.

COST OF THE INSTITUTIONS

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 23.—The fifth annual report of the state prison commission shows the result of the operation of the two state prisons for the year beginning December 1, 1901, and ending November 30, 1902.

The report shows now under contract 650 men to the Frankfort Chair company at 40 cents per day; 400 to the Frankfort Shoe Manufacturing company at 40 cents per day; 150 to the Eddyville Collar company at 40 cents per day; 150 to the Kentucky Shoe Manufacturing company at 42 1/2 cents per day; 70 to the Louisville Broom works at 35 cents per day; 50 to the Kentucky Foundry company at 50 cents per day; a total of 1,470 under contract in both penitentiaries. On January 1st the contract price for the men employed by the Frankfort Shoe company was increased to 50 cents, the largest price ever paid for convict labor in Kentucky.

The report of the Eddyville prison shows a deficit of $18,475, a decrease compared with that of last year of $669.01. Taking into consideration purchases for permanent repairs and improvements amounting to $8,090.50, reduced the deficit to $10,384.50, the lowest in the history of this prison.

Since the parole law became effective 138 prisoners have been released under its provisions, and, with a single exception all have lived up to its requirements since leaving the prison.

The report of Warden Lillard, of the main prison, shows that there are confined here 1,275 persons. During the year 612 prisoners were received; 572 were released, 25 died, three were transferred to the insane asylum, 55 were paroled and 65 were pardoned.

The report of Warden Henry Hagerman, of the branch prison at Eddyville, makes recommendation for new cell room. He has 549 prisoners and only 414 cells to confine them. He urges improvements at once. During the year 295 prisoners were received, 49 were discharged, 22 were paroled, eight died and 17 were pardoned.

AROUND THE WORLD

MARCONI'S SYSTEM TO BE ESTABLISHED EVERYWHERE.

New York, Jan. 23.—John Bottomly, manager for the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. of America, has announced that work would soon be begun for the installation of wireless stations capable of covering pretty much all the world.

"In view of the opposition," said Mr. Bottomly, "it is impossible for me to tell all our plans at the present time, but a number of stations will be set up here very soon. There is no reason that I know of why communication cannot be established between here and San Francisco soon. It has been proved to our satisfaction that wireless messages can be sent over the land as well as over the sea.

"We are at present making arrangements to put a number of our stations at points along the Pacific. It is safe to say that New York will be adequately equipped."

Bowling Green, Ky., Jan. 23.—A supposed thief who has been wanted in this city for 35 years has been located in Texas, and the proper papers were issued to secure his return to Kentucky. The complaining witness is Milt Kirby, of Smith's Grove. A few years after the Civil war, Mr. Kirby, who is a wealthy man, was robbed of several hundred dollars and a gold watch valued at $950. He claims to have known the man who committed the theft, and has frequently made efforts to secure his arrest. He says he has located him in a Texas town, where he is engaged in the saloon business. Mr. Kirby left with a warrant for the man's arrest.

DEATH IN MARSHALL

DR. HARTSFIELD A VICTIM OF CONSUMPTION AT SCALE.

Dr. T. I. Hartsfield, a leading physician of the Calvert City section, and one of the best known and most popular young men of Marshall county, died at his home near Scale, Wednesday night of consumption.

He had just returned from Texas, where he had been for some time for the benefit of his health. The trip did not appear to improve his health any, but instead he gradually grew worse, and about two weeks ago, his brother, Horace, went after him and brought him to the home of their mother, near Scale, where he died.

Roberts is widely connected and well-to-do. He was 73 years old.

WILL HAVE TO BE SOLD

Cadiz Railroad to be Disposed of on Bonds.

About $2,000 in bonds have to be Paid And Said is Bought.

NO DEFENSE TO BE MADE

The Cadiz railroad, which was built by the people of Cadiz and is now owned by them, will be sold in the near future in order to pay off $19,000 worth of construction bonds for which the road was mortgaged in order to procure the money to complete it. It runs from Cadiz to Gracey.

The Fidelity Trust and Safety Vault company of Louisville, trustees for the bondholders, has filed suit in the Trigg circuit court to foreclose their mortgage. No defense will be made to the suit, and judgment will doubtless be rendered against the stockholders and the property sold to meet the outstanding indebtedness. This sale will be made subject to a lien of $28,000 in favor of the L. and N. Railroad company, who furnished the rails for the road.

W. O. White, Edw. R. Street, and D. L. Grinter, the three largest stockholders of the road, hold the $19,000 worth of bonds to pay which the road will be sold, and it is likely they will be the purchasers of the property when the sale is made.

TRAVELED A ROUGH ROAD.

SUES FOR INJURIES IN BEING INITIATED.

Lebanon, Mo., Jan. 23.—John A. Brown of Conway, Mo., has brought suit in the circuit court of Laclede county to recover $20,000 damages from the Ancient Order of United Workmen for injuries sustained while being initiated into that order. The degree was conferred at Buffalo, Mo., and plaintiff states in his petition that he was caused to travel over a rough road made of poles or small logs, and stumbled and fell, injuring his leg, and as a consequence amputation was necessary. F. H. Bacon, an attorney of St. Louis, who is grand agent of the Royal Arcanum, is representing the defendant.

THE ALDERMEN

Only a Small Amount of Business Was Transacted.

Three of the Aldermen Were Absent Last Night.

The board of aldermen met in regular session last night with Aldermen Chamblin, Starks, Durrett, Troutman and Smith present. There was little business before the board and the meeting was adjourned at 8:30 o'clock.

After the reading and adoption of the minutes of the last regular and called meetings, Mayor Yeiser read his address and presented the yearly reports of the different officers which were all received, filed, concurred in and ordered printed in book form along with the report of the mayor.

The ordinance providing for a back tax collector, who shall receive a 10 per cent commission on all collections and who must give a $1,000 bond, was given second passage.

The report of the milk and meat inspector was read and received.

The matter of opening up Washington street from Fifteenth to Nineteenth streets was referred to a special committee. Mr. Frank Hieke is building a house in that section and the foundation has been built in the middle of the street, if extended, and the property owners seek to come to some agreement with him so that the site of the house may be changed and the street opened.

On motion the board adjourned.

REMARKABLE ARGUMENT.

WANTS VERDICT OF ACCIDENTAL DEATH BECAUSE OF VICTIM'S THIN SKULL.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 23.—The case of the state vs. Jack Phillips, convicted of manslaughter, was argued on rehearing before the supreme court. Phillips, while acting as a special policeman at Eldon, clubbed Clarence Debard so severely that he died. I. M. Tomlinson, for the defense, today argued that the killing of Debard must be held to have been accidental, because the autopsy had shown Debard's skull to be abnormally thin and that if Phillips misjudged the thickness of the skull and inflicted blows that ordinarily would not have caused death to a man, he should not be held responsible.

DEFENDS THE KAISER

CHANCELLOR VON BUELOW SAYS HE HAS STRONG INDIVIDUALITY.

Berlin, Jan. 23.—Chancellor Von Buelow, replying in the reichstag to an assertion of Herr Richter, the Radical leader, that the country and the crown itself were harmed by the too frequent utterances of Emperor William without consulting his ministers, said:

"In a constitutional state the leading statesman must reckon with the individuality of the monarch. The stronger that individuality all the more is he inclined to influence the state's affairs, which does not always facilitate the statesman's official duties, but the strongly marked individuality of a ruler is a great advantage that cannot be underestimated. I have found many persons abroad that long for a monarch of accentuated personality. Nobody should blind himself against the grand lines in the character of our emperor. He has a free and unprejudiced mind, as I can say, and there is nothing petty in him. Whatever you blame in him he is no Philistine. If you wish to make attacks, direct them against me."

The chancellor later, referring to the works of Herr Liebermann von Sonnenberg, said he recommended Emperor William to receive the Boer generals if they sought presentation through the British ambassador. Gen. Dewet was accepted and then changed his mind.

KENTUCKY'S EXHIBIT

A SPLENDID SHOWING TO SOON BE MADE.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 23.—Kentucky is making preparations to have exhibits of whiskey, tobacco and oil at the St. Louis exposition that will eclipse similar exhibits of any other state. Work is now well under way on each of these exhibits. At a meeting of the finance committee today the first business transacted was the election of Mr. W. D. McElhinney of Central City as a member of the committee, he having accepted the chairmanship of the coal operators' committee of the association. A letter was read from Mr. Howard Flanagan of Lexington, the oil correspondent, in which he said that the officers of the companies located in Lexington had about agreed to contribute from $50 to $500, according to the resources of the company. Mr. Flanagan further said that all the oil companies seemed to be ready to subscribe liberally to any fund that will give Kentucky the best oil exhibit of any state in the union. The oil industry in Kentucky is comparatively new, and for this reason it is desired that the product be exhibited at St. Louis on an extensive scale.

NOT BOOTH.

THE STRANGER WHO DIED ONCE KILLED A MAN IN A THEATER.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 23.—O. M. Clark of Oklahoma City states that D. E. George, who committed suicide at Elmd and left a note stating that he was John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of President Lincoln, had no connection with the death of Lincoln. George was born in Mississippi in 1836 and served as a major on Buford Forrest's staff in the Confederate army. George fought three duels and was wounded many times. After the war, it is said, he killed "Ben" Thompson in a theater at San Antonio, Tex., and was acquitted. Thompson was a noted Texas "man-killer." The killing in the Texas theater probably led up to the Booth story.

MARDI GRAS, NEW ORLEANS.

ABUSE OF POWER.

It appears that the frequent abuse of power by Democratic officeholders is not always confined to politics. Not long ago a man was arrested in Chicago and taken to Louisville on a charge of abducting his own child. It was known that the court of appeals had decided that a man cannot abduct his own child, yet the man was indicted, brought to Kentucky—and promptly turned loose. The excuse given by the commonwealth's attorney was that he had the indictment brought in order to get the man back to Kentucky and assist, if possible, the mother to recover the child. This prompts the Lexington Herald to remark:

"We cannot believe that the reporter accurately reports the statement of Mr. Huffaker, the commonwealth's attorney; for if so it is an outrage not only against Harvey S. Barnes but against the sovereignty of Kentucky and against the liberty of every citizen. It is also an utterly indefensible prostitution of the power of the grand jury and humiliation of the criminal court of Louisville."

As soon as the wife obtained possession of the child the commonwealth's attorney in open court announced that he was aware that the indictment was not good; that the Kentucky court of appeals had held a number of times that a father could not be indicted for abducting his own child; that he had only recommended to the grand jury to return this indictment in order to help the mother secure possession of her child; whereupon the court dismissed the indictment, and, strange to say, the learned judge proceeded to admonish this man, who had been outraged, who had been illegally arrested in Chicago, lawlessly transported from Chicago to Louisville and there turned loose, because the whole proceedings against him from the beginning to the termination were absolutely without legal foundation and were lawless.

If this be true, it is a criminal malfeasance in office of the commonwealth's attorney. It is a most reprehensible course of conduct upon the part of the judge. It is the lawless use of a criminal court for the purpose of carrying out the judgments of a civil tribunal.

There has been quite a number of cases in which the criminal courts have been used as instruments to enforce civil claims; and, if the crime can be more heinous, used for political purposes. We are becoming acclimated in Kentucky to the prostitution of judicial tribunals and proceedings for personal, pecuniary and political purposes, and a case like this excites no comment, creates no sensation, causes no censure.

The people of Kentucky need to be more sensitive concerning the uses to which our courts have been and are being put. Judges in Kentucky need to be more careful in their conduct."

WHOOPIING THINGS UP.

It is not at all remarkable that the Democrats are attempting to manufacture a new supply of prejudice against the Republicans in Kentucky. State officers are to be chosen this year, and the Democratic party is split in the middle. The politicians see defeat staring them in the face, and are making a desperate effort to stir up something. The statement to the grand jury has not been made public, and is only a matter of conjecture, but he is in a position where he could afford to say anything, and the more he said to benefit the Democrats, the better his chances for favors at the hands of the Democrats. If he could damn a large part of the Republican party in Kentucky, which he can't do, they might even give him his freedom some day as a token of their appreciation. What Henry Yontsey has said or may say, however, will cut little figure unless it be in the political courts where the Democrats hold the trials of those charged with complicity in the Goebel murder, and there is always plenty of made-to-order testimony in those tribunals without any of Yontsey's assistance. If Yontsey has told a different story from the one he told after his arrest, he is a self-confessed perjurer, and entitled to more belief than any other self-confessed perjurer. The Democrats are working the "confession," which no one yet seems to know anything about, however, for all it is worth, and it is probable that before the election other "valuable material" will be unearthed by them.

According to reports some of the city officials are being asked about extending the sanitary sewerage to other sections of the city. The new character enables this to be done by blocks, if advisable. We should like to see the people in every locality have sanitary sewerage, but it seems to us that the city should require the people to use the sanitary sewerage they already have before building more.

It is reported that Italy and England are at a loss to understand the bombardment of the German ships in Venezuela. If they were in Venezuela they would probably better appreciate it.

We want good streets and want them badly. It is time to put an end to the gravel graft. The streets couldn't be much worse if nothing at all was put on them.

WELL PLEASED.

IS THIS KENTUCKY SCULPTOR
AT HER NEW ASSIGNMENT.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch says: "Dispatches from New York say that Miss Enid Yandell, the sculptress, was delighted at the news from St. Louis that she had been assigned work on the world's fair buildings. When the Post-Dispatch correspondent saw her she had not received particulars as to what statues had been allotted to her, but she was ready to undertake anything."

"Karl Bitter is my godfather—studio godfather, at least—and I am much pleased to work under his direction. As yet I know nothing as to what is expected of me. I shall do the chief part of the models in my studio here, but may later go to St. Louis. However, this is not at all certain, for as yet I have not received particulars as to my assignment."

"Miss Yandell is a statuesque Kentucky lass, daughter of the late Dr. Laasford P. Yandell, of Louisville. She has made her home in New York for several years."

ILLINOIS CENTRAL WORK.

CONNECTING BRANCH WITH THE U. AND E. I. COMPLETE.

The connection has been put in at Olive Branch between the Illinois Central and the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroads. With the exception of a section of heavy fill across Lake Creek bottom, near the county farm, the grading for the Mounds and Olive branch line of the Illinois Central is completed.

Steel has been laid on the Mounds end to Cache, where they are now constructing the bridge over that stream. Work will now be pushed from Olive Branch toward Cache, and the section through the Lake Creek bottom will be completed last, as work cannot be done on it at present. The company is crowding the work as rapidly as the weather will permit, and will have trains running over the line this spring.

Bruce Head expects to be at work again in a few days. He states positively that he will appear against Dr. Duncan at the trial, which will come up at the present term of the criminal court.

Succeeds Trainmaster Linton—Coach
Inspector Returns to Paducah.

Mr. E. F. North, who has been one of the "Irish" dispatchers at Louisville, has been promoted to the position of chief dispatcher at Louisville for the Louisville division of the Illinois Central. He succeeds Mr. J. F. Sheridan who has been appointed trainmaster of that division, succeeding Mr. W. H. Linton who has been promoted to fill the vacancy caused by the transfer of Supt. H. R. Dill, of the Evansville district. Mr. North is well known here having attended court here several months ago. He was at that time in the city several weeks and made many friends here who will be pleased to learn of his deserved promotion. He is known as one of the best dispatchers on the entire I. C. system.

Mr. W. A. Carter, the local Illinois Central coach inspector, has returned from Murphysboro, Ill., where he has been attending court for the past three days. Mr. F. Huddle had been filling Mr. Carter's position, and had gone back to the car department of the Illinois Central shops.

AWARDED $5000

This is the Judgement Against the Street Car Company.

Jury Returned a Verdict Today—Another Damage Suit Now on Trial.

The jury in the case of F. G. Rudolph, Adm., against the Paducah Railway and Light company, this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $5,000.

The case had been on trial the greater portion of the week and was late yesterday given to the jury. The suit was brought to recover $20,000 for the life of Lineman Charles Bell who fell from a telegraph pole at Fourth and Broadway about a year ago, and died from the effects of the fall two days later. The point to be decided was whether or not Bell received a shock which caused him to turn loose the pole. The jury seemed to think that he did and returned a verdict accordingly.

At press times the case of W. D. Pace against the Paducah Street Railway and Light company was on trial. Pace was driving in a wagon and was struck by a car and claimed to be permanently injured and asks $10,000 damages. The evidence is being heard this afternoon.

Three cases of the Central Kentucky Asylum Co. against Julius A. Allard were settled by judgments for sale being filed for the plaintiff, in all three cases.

The case of Hoffman against Roberts was dismissed and settled.

AWARDED $5000

This is the Judgement Against the Street Car Company.

Jury Returned a Verdict Today—Another Damage Suit Now on Trial.

The jury in the case of F. G. Rudolph, Adm., against the Paducah Railway and Light company, this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $5,000.

The case had been on trial the greater portion of the week and was late yesterday given to the jury. The suit was brought to recover $20,000 for the life of Lineman Charles Bell who fell from a telegraph pole at Fourth and Broadway about a year ago, and died from the effects of the fall two days later. The point to be decided was whether or not Bell received a shock which caused him to turn loose the pole. The jury seemed to think that he did and returned a verdict accordingly.

At press times the case of W. D. Pace against the Paducah Street Railway and Light company was on trial. Pace was driving in a wagon and was struck by a car and claimed to be permanently injured and asks $10,000 damages. The evidence is being heard this afternoon.

Three cases of the Central Kentucky Asylum Co. against Julius A. Allard were settled by judgments for sale being filed for the plaintiff, in all three cases.

The case of Hoffman against Roberts was dismissed and settled.

There I was treated like a gentleman, in Germany they let me to work at bookbinding. That was easy. In London they made me pick oakum. That was very hard. The first time I was imprisoned in America I had to be a furnace. That was

FORMER PADUCAHAN

Mr. Wm. Ellington, Once Proprietor of the Richmond Hotel, Dead.

Lived in Paducah for Many Years and Leaves Many Friends Here.

News has reached the city of the death at Calvert City, Marshall county, of a former Paducahan who had many friends here. He was Mr. William B. Ellington, for years in business here, and who left a host of friends among the older inhabitants of Paducah.

The deceased was born in Prince Edward county, Virginia, January 21, 1821. He came to Kentucky in 1858, and settled near Cadiz, Trigg county. He was a tobacco buyer there for some time, and finally came to Paducah in 1868.

He was for several years one of the proprietors of the Richmond hotel, the name of the firm being at that time Ellington and Gentry.

Later he was in the tobacco business. He was known to everybody in Paducah, and was a highly respected man. Later he moved to Calvert City, Marshall county, where he remained during his declining years.

He joined the Presbyterian church here under Dr. Hendricks many years ago and was always a man of generous impulses and progressive views.

He leaves besides a wife, three children, Mr. Jule Ellington and Wm. O. Ellington, of Calvert City, and Mrs. Kate E. Locker, of Briensburg, Marshall county. The first named was in the tobacco business here until two or three years ago, when he returned to Calvert City.

COFFEE HEART.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES NOW RECOGNIZE THE DISEASE.

The Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette, a famous authority, said in a recent issue: "Medical examiners for life insurance companies have added the term 'coffee heart' to their regular classification of the functional derangements of that organ. Its effect is in shortening the long beat of the heart. 'Coffee tapers,' they say, are plentiful and as much tied to their cups as the whiskey toper. The effect of coffee upon the heart is more lasting and consequently worse than that of liquor."

A well known physician specialist of Ladoga, Ind., tells how he treats such cases. He has had many such. He says: "I will mention one case in my practice—Mrs. H., age 54, very fleshy, family history good, had been for more than three years a constant sufferer from headache, heart trouble and smothering spells, accompanied by nervousness. Had to lie down when attacked by these spells. She was treating all the time, but got worse."

"I soon found out that she had 'coffee heart,' and promptly ordered her in this way: I forbade her coffee and put her on Postum Cereal Coffee instead. She reported in five weeks and said she had not had a bad spell since and felt sound and well. This was four years ago and she is now a picture of perfect health and happiness. 'This is only one case out of many. I knew the doctor's bills would be small, but I also knew the case would bring lots of others to me. Few people realize the great value of Postum. It is not a 'one-size,' but it has been the means of relief to perhaps more people than any one thing ever introduced in the American bill of fare. I have seen some wonderful results from its use.' Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich."

Heligoland a Gretna Green.

The island of Heligoland still continues under the German rule to maintain its character as a sort of European Gretna Green.

The Heligoland clergy are Lutheran, and are elected by the people, after the ancient Frisian custom. But most of their services in connection with weddings are required, not by the members of their own flock, but by outsiders, who cross the seas to the islands merely for the sake of getting married.

A music teacher of the island has officiated as the "father" of numerous runaway brides. When he gives away a lady whom he has never seen before to a gentleman about whom he knows nothing at all, he accepts an "honorarium" of £5.

She Was Prepared.

"How can you say so, Henry?" exclaimed the young wife, righteously indignant, "when you know I have two of the loveliest rainy skirts that were ever made."

FORMER PADUCAHAN

Mr. Wm Ellington, Once Proprietor of the Richmond Hotel, Dead.

Lived in Paducah for Many Years and Leaves Many Friends Here.

News has reached the city of the death at Calvert City, Marshall county, of a former Paducahan who had many friends here. He was Mr. William B. Ellington, for years in business here, and who left a host of friends among the older inhabitants of Paducah.

The deceased was born in Prince Edward county, Virginia, January 21, 1821. He came to Kentucky in 1858, and settled near Cadiz, Trigg county. He was a tobacco buyer there for some time, and finally came to Paducah in 1868.

He was for several years one of the proprietors of the Richmond hotel, the name of the firm being at that time Ellington and Gentry.

Later he was in the tobacco business. He was known to everybody in Paducah, and was a highly respected man. Later he moved to Calvert City, Marshall county, where he remained during his declining years.

He joined the Presbyterian church here under Dr. Hendricks many years ago and was always a man of generous impulses and progressiveness.

He leaves besides a wife, three children, Mr. Jule Ellington and Wm. O. Ellington, of Calvert City, and Mrs. Kate E. Looker, of Briensburg, Marshall county. The first named was in the tobacco business here until two or three years ago, when he returned to Calvert City.

Vitality of Turnip Seed.

Turnip seeds have been known to be dormant for seven years through being planted too deep, and after that time to sprout.

COFFEE HEART.

The Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette, a famous authority, said in a recent issue: "Medical examiners for life insurance companies have added the term 'coffee heart' to their regular classification of the functional derangements of that organ. Its effect is in shortening the long beat of the heart. 'Coffee tappers,' they say, are plentiful and as much tied to their cups as the whiskey toper. The effect of coffee upon the heart is more lasting and consequently worse than that of liquor."

A well known physician specialist of Ladoga, Ind., tells how he treats such cases. He has had many such. He says: "I will mention one case in my practice—Mrs. H., age 54, very fleshy, family history good, had been for more than three years a constant sufferer from headache, heart trouble and smothering spells, accompanied by nervousness. Had to lie down when attacked by these spells. She was treating all the time, but got worse."

"I soon found out that she had 'coffee heart,' and promptly ordered her in this way: I forbade her coffee and put her on Postum Cereal Coffee instead. She reported in five weeks and said she had not had a bad spell since and felt sound and well. This was four years ago and she is now a picture of perfect health and happiness."

"This is only one case out of many. I knew the doctor's bills would be small, but I also knew the case would bring lots of others to me. Few people realize the great value of Postum. It is not a 'one-all,' but it has been the means of relief to perhaps more people than any one thing ever introduced in the American bill of fare. I have seen some wonderful results from its use." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

This wonderful remedy saved my life." J. B. ROSEL, Groutsburg, Ill.

Haligoland a Gretna Green.

The island of Haligoland still continues under the German rule to maintain its character as a sort of European Gretna Green.

The Haligoland clergy are Lutheran, and are elected by the people, after the ancient Frisian custom. But most of their services in connection with weddings are required, not by the members of their own flock, but by outsiders, who cross the seas to the island merely for the sake of getting married.

A music teacher of the island has officiated as the "father" of numerous runaway brides. When he gives away a lady whom he has never seen before to a gentleman about whom he knows nothing at all, he accepts an "honorarium" of £5.

She Was Prepared.

"If you keep on as you have begun, Mabel," complained the young husband, running his eye over the expense account, "we shall never be able to lay up anything for a rainy day." "How can you say so, Henry?" exclaimed the young wife, righteously indignant, "when you know I have two of the loveliest rainy skirts that were ever made."

The Man In Charge

On the first and third Tuesdays of each month the Burlington sells homeseekers' tickets to the territory East of the Rockies at one fare plus $2.00 round trip. On the same dates one-way settlers' tickets to the same region are sold at a trifle more than half rates.

The Burlington best reaches the corn belt, the wheat belt, the livestock areas of the Louisiana Purchase, and, in connection with the Northern Pacific and Great Northern Railroads, forms direct routes to the upper Northwest country through St. Louis or Chicago.

The generous harvest of 1902 in the West is a strong appeal to homeseekers and investors to see the rewards now being gained by farmers, stock raisers and fruit growers, not only in the regions of natural rainfall, but in the spreading irrigated districts of Eastern Colorado, Northwest Nebraska, the North Platte and Big Horn Valleys of Wyoming, also of Idaho, Montana and Washington.

Send for any of our special land publications, all free—"Nebraska," "Black Hills Mining," "North Platte Valley," "Big Horn Basin," "West Nebraska Grazing Country," "The Corn Belt," also of Minnesota, the Dakotas, or the Northwest.

The name of the towboat Kenton has been changed to "Thomas A. Nevins," final authority having been received from the government. D., have decided they can make more money attending to their respective professions, and have decided to charter or sell the boat. They have discharged the crew, from captain to cook.

COMING BACK.

DEMAND FOR OLD WHISKEY BRINGS IT FROM EUROPE.

A large quantity of the old whiskey which was sent to Europe two years ago for storage is now being brought back. The demand for old goods is now strong, and the owners of the whiskey are taking advantage of the present firm market and are disposing of the stock, principally '93's and '94's at good prices. Most of this whiskey was from the Melwood distillery. In all, over 50,000 barrels were exported. Little of it is coming back to Kentucky, most of it being disposed of in New York and San Francisco.

Was Willing to Try It.

At a musicale where the Rev. Thomas F. McLoughlin, known as the "singing priest of Chinatown," was a guest, a young woman, with a robust soprano voice did most of the entertaining. She was very proud of her accomplishments and her musical education. She sang songs in German, Italian, French and English. When she appeared to have exhausted her repertoire and the company present were wishing for a change in the program, Father McLoughlin paid her some compliments and added:

"Why, Miss Jones, I think you could sing an infinitum."

"I really don't know it," responded the obliging young woman, "but if the music is here, I'll try it."

Blanco's Correction.

In discussing the prospects of President Castro being driven out of Venezuela the other day Dr. David J. Hill, first assistant secretary of state, cited the case of former President Blanco, whose administration was overturned after he had, according to common report, accumulated great wealth. He remarked that Senor Blanco was strolling in a boulevard in Paris when a passing pedestrian arrested the pace of his companion and said: "See that man? He stole $3,000,000 when his government was overthrown." Quick as a flash Senor Blanco turned. "I'll pardon, sir," he said, icily, "but it was $5,000,000."

No Appetite—Food Did Not Digest.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Completely Cured Me.

Lucky the sufferer from nervous diseases whose symptoms are as plainly marked as those of Mr. Powell, as given below. Too often the symptoms are mistaken for some derangement of the digestive organs and the wrong treatment administered and continued until too late to make a change beneficial. Too many doctors make the mistake of trying to cure the symptoms instead of the disease. Dr. Miles' Nervine goes to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the nervous system, puts life and vigor into every muscle, every fibre, every tissue, every nerve cell. There is nothing so good for the nerves as Nervine.

"About four years ago I suffered from pains around my heart, and after the least exertion it would palpitate in such a manner as to cause me much distress. I had a feeling of oppression in my chest, was nervous, could not sleep, lost my appetite and flesh, had pains in back and shoulder, my food did not digest and I could not eat anything without causing distress. My feet were cold at times and I became exceedingly weak and all run down. I tried ten different doctors, one or two of whom gave me temporary relief. Finally I saw that Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine was advertised to cure sufferers from such nervous disorders as mine and procured a bottle. I am now permanently cured and I cannot say enough for the Restorative Nervine."—H. L. POWELL, Henderson, N.C.

Burlington Route

The Man In Charge

On the first and third Tuesdays of each month the Burlington sells homeseekers' tickets to the territory East of the Rockies at one fare plus $2.00 round trip. On the same dates one-way settlers' tickets to the same region are sold at a trifle more than half rates.

The Burlington best reaches the corn belt, the wheat belt, the livestock areas of the Louisiana Purchase, and, in connection with the Northern Pacific and Great Northern Railroads, forms direct routes to the upper Northwest country through St. Louis or Chicago.

The generous harvest of 1902 in the West is a strong appeal to homeseekers and investors to see the rewards now being gained by farmers, stock raisers and fruit growers, not only in the regions of natural rainfall, but in the spreading irrigated districts of Eastern Colorado, Northwest Nebraska, the North Platte and Big Horn Valleys of Wyoming, also of Idaho, Montana and Washington.

Send for any of our special land publications, all free—"Nebraska," "Black Hills Mining," "North Platte Valley," "Big Horn Basin," "West Nebraska Grazing Country," "The Corn Belt," also of Minnesota, the Dakotas, or the Northwest.

Observations taken at 7 a.m. River 14.3 on the gauge, a fall of 0.8 in last 24 hours. Wind southeast, a light breeze. Weather cloudy and warmer. Temperature 37. Fell, Observer.

The Sprague is expected up tomorrow or Sunday.

The Fred Nellis is due up from Cairo this morning.

The Tennessee is due out of Tennessee river today.

The Victor is still due out of the Tennessee river with ties.

The Dick Fowler cleared on time this morning for Cairo.

The William Towle left this morning for Joppa for barges.

The Pavonia left this morning at 10 o'clock for Cumberland river after ties.

The J. M. Howell will leave today for Tennessee river after a tow of ties.

The Key City passed down this morning for Atchison with a tow of logs.

The Ten Broeck arrived out of Cumberland river this morning with a tow of ties.

The W. W. O'Neill arrived here yesterday and is laying up on account of the ice.

The Sunshine will leave Memphis today and will pass Paducah en route to Cincinnati Sunday.

The Battorff will arrive Sunday or Monday from Clarksville and will leave Monday at noon for Nashville.

The H. F. Frisbie is laying here with a tow awaiting the thinning of the ice, so she can proceed up the Ohio.

The Mary Michael is laying here awaiting the thinning of the ice. She will go down into the Mississippi river after a tow of lumber.

The pilots on the Memphis and Cairo packet Peters Lee report passing the big towboat Oakland and tow at 8 a.m. Monday at Cottonwood Point, 123 miles below Cairo.

Mate Gus Ambrey of the Dick Fowler is ill and was taken from the boat to his room over Sebrer's at First and Broadway this morning. Wes Shores is working in his place.

The Boeanza, on her way from Memphis to Cincinnati, succeeded in reaching Hawesville, where she laid up. Her crew and passengers proceeded to Cincinnati by rail.

The steamer New South will leave Cincinnati this evening for New Orleans. She has been chartered out in the Mississippi river to run excursions out of New Orleans this summer.

The Hill faction made another attempt to get possession of the Eagle Packet company's property, but failing will probably resort to the courts. The Leybe faction, in the meantime, is still in control.

The Boeanza will not pass down from Cincinnati to Memphis Sunday but will pass Monday or Tuesday or probably later. She is being delayed by ice and is having a hard time ploughing through it.

The Joe Fowler and Hopkins are turned around and have exchanged places. Today is the Fowler's day but the Hopkins is here and left this morning for Evansville. The Joe Fowler will arrive tonight.

The big towboat Sprague appears to be "hoodooed," the latest reports stating that she has cracked one of her cylinders and that she passed Vicksburg last Saturday en route to Louisville working only her low pressure engines.

Messrs. Stockham and Green, of Nashville, the steamboat inspectors, will be here Monday on an inspection tour. The steamer Wood will be inspected here if the ice has not thinned out sufficiently to enable her to proceed up the Ohio. If not inspected here she will be at Evansville.

The towboats Boaz and Wood arrived today en route to Pittsburgh with tows of empties and tied upon account of the ice. There are now several of the big towboats of the combine laid up here. The Wood ice last night and could not get out until this morning.

The name of the towboat Kenton has been changed to "Thomas A. Navins," final authority having been received from the government. The name is after the president of the coal company that owns her, Mr. Thomas A. Navins of Orange, N. J., who is one of those who recently brought the Paducah Coal and Mining Co.

The steamer Mary F. Golden, now tied up at Vanceburg, Ky., has suspended business. The owners, one a farmer and the other an M. D., have decided they can make more money attending to their respective professions, and have decided to charter or sell the boat. They have discharged the crew, from captain to cook.

COMING BACK.

DEMAND FOR OLD WHISKY BRINGS IT FROM EUROPE.

A large quantity of the old whisky which was sent to Europe two years ago for storage is now being brought back. The demand for old goods is now strong, and the owners of the whisky are taking advantage of the present firm market and are disposing of the stock, principally '93's and '94's at good prices. Most of this whisky was from the Meliwood distillery. In all, over 50,000 barrels were exported. Little of it is coming back to Kentucky, most of it being disposed of in New York and San Francisco.

MAYORALTY RACE.

MR. JOH RANDALL, IT IS REPORTED, WILL ENTER THE CONTENT.

Mr. Joh Randall, Democratic election commissioner for McCracken county, it is understood will be a candidate for the democratic mayoralty nomination this year, and a number of other gentlemen are mentioned, but have not committed themselves.

Was Willing to Try It. At a musicale where the Rev. Thomas P. McLoughlin, known as the "singing priest of Chinatown," was a guest, a young woman, with a robust soprano voice did most of the entertaining. She was very proud of her accomplishments and her musical education. She sang songs in German, Italian, French and English. When she appeared to have exhausted her repertoire and the company present were wishing for a change in the program, Father McLoughlin paid her some compliments and added: "Why, Miss Jones, I think you could sing ad infinitum."

"I really don't know it," responded the obliging young woman, "but if the music is here, I'll try it."

Bianco's Correction. In discussing the prospects of President Castro being driven out of Venezuela the other day Dr. David J. Hill, first assistant secretary of state, cited the case of former President Bianco, whose administration was overturned after he had, according to common report, accumulated great wealth. His remark that "Senor Bianco was strolling in a boulevard in Paris when a passing pedestrian arrested the pace of his companion and said: 'See that man? He stole $3,000,000 when his government was overthrown.' Quick as a flash Senor Bianco turned. 'Bed pardon, sir,' he said, 'but it was $5,000,000.'"

And Run Down—Pain and Insomnia.

No Appetite—Food Did Not Digest.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Completely Cured Me.

Lucky the sufferer from nervous diseases whose symptoms are as plainly marked as those of Mr. Powell, as given below. Too often the symptoms are mistaken for some derangement of the digestive organs and the wrong treatment administered and continued until too late to make a change beneficial. Too many doctors make the mistake of trying to cure the symptoms instead of the disease. Dr. Miles' Nervine goes to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the nervous system, puts life and vigor into every muscle, every fibre, every tissue, every nerve cell. There is nothing so good for the nerves as Nervine.

"About four years ago I suffered from pains around my heart, and after the least exertion it would palpitate in such a manner as to cause me much distress. I had a feeling of oppression in my chest, was nervous, could not sleep, lost my appetite and flesh, had pains in back and shoulders, my food did not digest and I could not eat anything without causing distress. My feet were cold at times and I became exceedingly weak and all run down. I tried ten different doctors, one or two of whom gave me temporary relief. Finally I saw that Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine was advertised to cure sufferers from such nervous disorders as mine and procured a bottle. I am now permanently cured and I cannot say enough for the Restorative Nervine."—H. L. POWELL, Henderson, N.C.

OR TETTER is one of the many varieties of that tormenting disease called Eczema. It simmers through the summer and breaks out in winter. The head, feet and hands are the parts most often attacked, though it sometimes appears on other parts of the body, the skin becomes cracked and open and bleeds, while the itching and burning is at times almost unbearable. Scratching only makes it worse, sores and scabs forming where the skin is broken.

In this form of Eczema brownish white crusts sometimes form which scale off.

SKIN CRACKS AND BLEEDS

In fine particles, leaving the skin raw and inflamed. It is especially painful and severe when confined to the hands, which often become so badly affected that the sufferer is unable to perform the lightest work. This, like all other types of Eczema, is due to acid poisons in the blood and not to local causes. The trouble is more than skin deep, and washes, soaps, powders and salves can possibly do more than soothe the burning and itching or relieve temporarily the inflammation and pain.

It is the acids thrown off by the blood and which are forcing their way through the pores that cause the skin to harden, crack and bleed, and produce the irritation and soreness.

S. S. S. neutralizes these acid poisons and cleanses the blood of all irritating substances and humors.

S. S. S. purifies and invigorates the blood, acid blood, and builds up the entire system; then the unsightly eruptions and sores heal, the skin becomes smooth and soft,
and all signs of the Eczema disappear.

REFORMER

By CHARLES M. SHELTON.

Author of "In His Steps," "Robert Hardy's Seven Days," Etc.

Copyright, 1901, by Charles M. Shelton

In front of every other house stood a garbage box, or what had once been one. The majority of these boxes were rotting heaps of boards without covers, overflowing with wet stuff composed of decaying vegetables, the sweepings from the tables of the people and the litter of paper, tin cans and refuse that had not been disturbed by inspectors or garbage wagons for several weeks.

There was not a whole piece of sidewalk on either side of the street. Piles of rotting plank stood on end or lay partly over the alleys, in some cases thrown down between the decaying timbers, sticking above the regular level,
a hideous menace, a miserable object lesson, out of hundreds more, of the miserable fact of municipal incompetence. "The landlords? The city ordinance makes it obligatory on the landlords to furnish and keep in good repair garbage boxes sufficient in size to accommodate the number of families in their tenements."

Mr. Marsh looked at the box in front of his own double-decker and said nothing.

It was a rotten apology for what had once been a small box. It had only three sides and no cover. It was filled to overflowing, and crowning the heap of stench was a dead chicken swimming with maggots. It was a fair sample of every other box in Bowen street, and in its foulness and naked nakedness
it stood there in the blaze of the pillbox sun a dumb but ghastly and overwhelming witness against the cultured indifference of the men who are not willing to be their brother's keepers so long as they can live luxuriously on their brother's needs at a distance from all suffering and responsibility.

They went into the narrow court that separated the rear from the front of the building, and John Gordon pointed out the deadly nature of the construc-

"There is no direct sunlight in any of these rooms that open on the court.
All light and air must enter either where we did or come in from the top."

He uttered the word in time to prevent Mr. Marsh from stumbling over a projection in the shape of a raised platform built out from the side wall, shortening the distance between the main walls of the court. The use of the platform was, as he afterward learned, to furnish a little additional room for hanging out clothes, which were suspended above the platform on a series of racks.

The floor of the court or passageway
between the two wings of the "dumb-bell" was slippery with filth of every description. In the semidarkness which prevailed in spite of the sun's glare outside could be seen pale, tired women with sallow, dirty faces, peering out from doorway and window. The heat was stifling, as not a breath blew in at either end of the passage, and the odor was overpowering.

Mr. Marsh hesitated.

"I don't know that I care to go in,"
he said almost in a tone of fear.

"Too late to back out now, Mr.
Marsh. Come! It will do you good.
Make you more contented with your home on the boulevard," John Gordon said grimly.

He greeted the group of women in the doorway, and they returned his greeting civilly enough, for he was wearing his regular inspector's badge, authorized by the board of health, and besides all that he had already in the course of his brief study made friends in the block.

Almost the first step they took from the doorway plunged them into darkness. Gordon had hold of Mr. Marsh's arm and was silent until they came to the first flight of stairs at the end of the passage.

"Have to be a little careful here,
sir," he cautioned. "This is an old part, joining your part from the rear.
It was on the lot when your agent looked over the space, and he built up to the limit and a little more. In fact, he broke six distinct ordinances in using up the space that ought to have been left open between the new building and the old. But that was nothing to him, for it added six feet to the double-decker, and that meant twelve additional bedrooms. Have care here.
Some of the stair treads are broken."

Mr. Marsh uttered an ejaculation, and Gordon stopped.

"I feel ill. I don't believe I can go on, Gordon. This is terrible. It is past belief that human beings can live in such conditions."

"They don't all live, sir. Some of them die. But it's almost as bad to die in here as to live. You ought to see a funeral in one of these tenements."

"God forbid!" exclaimed Mr. Marsh emphatically. "Honestly, Gordon, it may seem absurd to you, but I am growing sick from the awful stench here. I doubt my ability to go on."

Gordon made no answer. After a moment Mr. Marsh said feebly:

"All right. I'll try to stand it."

"Taking" Matrimonial Fad.

Persons about to commit matrimony and victims invited to be present at affairs of the kind will be delighted to learn that a solution of the what-to-give problem has been invented in St. Paul, Minn. At a recent wedding in that city the friends of the bride and groom contented themselves with handing out checks for sums ranging from $1 up—mostly up. This scheme saves the bride the worry and peril of exchanging many duplicate gifts, and relieves the givers of any amount of hard thinking.

Engineer's Remarkable Record.

An American railway engineer who has just been placed on the pension list has one of the most remarkable records of any locomotive engineer in the world. For forty-two consecutive years he has kept an account of the miles he has traveled. The total amounts to 1,402,297 miles.

"Why don't they get new garbage
boxes at least?" Mr. Marsh exclaimed in the same irritated manner. He had begun by being sick at the sight of the foul conditions. He was now growing angry.

"Who do you mean by 'they,' Mr.
Marsh?" John Gordon said with some tenacity and debauchery of machine politics. Mr. Marsh learned afterward that more than 1,500 suits were pending against the city for serious injuries due to the defective sidewalks and that the sum total of damages claimed was more than $22,500,000. (See proceedings of regular meeting of Chicago city council Jan. 8, 1900.) The children in the street were playing, quarreling, digging in the garbage boxes, in many instances picking bits of decayed lemons, bananas and oranges out of the gutter.

One group of boys was tormenting a miserable cat. Another group was yelling at a police officer who had just ordered them out of the street, where they had been trying to have a game of ball. Over the steps of the tenement entrances, some of them high enough to be designated "stoops," women holding sick babies or little girls staggering under the load of a child two or three years younger filled up the picture of wretchedness, unkempt, disheveled, tired out humanity that turned that awful street into a human hell, where no alleviating bit of cheer or relief was inserted to give one ray of hope for the future.

The only buildings in front of which there were no stoops were the saloons.
These averaged five to a block and one on each corner. The corner saloons, with a few exceptions, also had attached to them vaudeville halls, with staring lamp signs, "Free Vaudeville," hung out over the entrances.

It has been said that no living being ever successfully described Bowen street so that a person who never saw it could have even the faintest conception of its truth. Mr. Marsh had never seen anything like it, and all his reading had never given him any idea whatever of the reality. He stared at it all now in a bewildered, almost frightened manner that grasped only a part of the terrible significance of it all.

Finally he turned to John Gordon and said with a tone in which irritation was the dominant note:

"Why don't some of these children go over and play in the Hope House playgrounds instead of rolling in this awful filth? I understood you to say that Hope House had a playground."

John Gordon looked at Mr. Marsh at first with a feeling of indignation, which rapidly changed to one of sadness.

"How many children can play in a space shut in and bounded by a lot less than 50 feet wide and 100 feet long?
It is crowded to overflowing now. Do you know how many years Miss Andrews pleaded and begged and prayed and turned mountains of selfish indifference and commercial greed to get that little playground?"

"I have no idea. Hadn't we better go inside now?" Mr. Marsh replied feebly. "Let's get through with it. I had no idea it was all so horrible. Of course this is unusually bad, isn't it?"

"There are fifty other streets as bad or worse within two miles of Hope House."

"Why don't they get new garbage
boxes at least?" Mr. Marsh exclaimed
in the same irritated manner. He had begun by being sick at the sight of the foul conditions. He was now growing angry.

Theatrical Notes.

Unable to find a thrill in this world strong enough to please his fancy, a modern playwright has gone into the next and come back with a ghost. The play is "A Silver Dagger," by Mark E. Swan. The visitor from the next world is used throughout the play with telling effect, and is the cause of a tremendous denouement which literally lifts the audience to its feet. As a thrill master the ghost in "The Silver Dagger" takes precedence over any effect devised for dramatic plays in recent years. At The Kentucky tomorrow matinee and night at popular prices. Seats now on sale.

"The Belle of New York" deserves the title of "the ever-green musical play." If such a designation can be attached to any stage production. It has been extremely popular in America, England, Germany, Austria and Australia since its original production at the famous Ossino in New York a number of years ago. It is safe to say that it has played to end delighted more men, women and children than any other of similar style known to theater-goers of the present day. It is beyond question that there are more pretty girls with this company than have been seen here with any other company. "The Belle of New York" will appear at The Kentucky on next Monday night. A few good seats still remain unsold.

Political Amantias 100 Years Ago.

After the late election for Norwich, Mr. Windham happened to meet one of the electors, was told by him his reasons for not voting for him. In the first place, he did not like him; and in the second, his aversion arose from his being a turn-out, and many more observations equally affronting. Mr. Windham replied very coldly: "You do this sir, to put me off my guard; but I am collected, and though the laws of courtesy bid me knock you down, yet, as you have before voted for me, and as I think it may teach you how to behave in future, I shall only pull your nose," which he did, by wringing it well.—London Times of 1802

LEG SHOT OFF

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT TO A YOUNG MAN NEAR BENTON.

While out hunting Monday the eldest son of Thos. Holley of near Benton was accidentally shot while carrying his gun across his shoulder. It slipped and fell to the ground and one of the hammers struck the frozen ground in such a way as to cause the gun to discharge. The lead struck the young man in the leg below the knee, breaking both bones and tearing almost all the flesh away and injuring it in so serious a manner that amputation was necessary. At last accounts the young man was resting well, and will probably recover.

French Workingwomen.

More than 6,300,000 French women work for their living. Most of these outside workers (more than 2,700,000) are employed in forestry or agriculture, including women land owners. Industrial occupations claim nearly 2,000,000 more, the cloister 120,000, the theater about 12,000 and the liberal professions 138,460.

DEEDS.

Glip Husbands, M. C., in Jacob Well, for $50, property near Eighth and Terrell streets.

Henry Boland and others to H. L. Harrison, for $200, property on Hays avenue.

W. P. Ridd to J. T. Harper, for $300, property in the county.

Lloyd Wilson to Jacob Well, for $1 and other consideration, property near Seventh and Terrell streets.

Afton Heights Co., through O. L. Gregory, president, to J. W. Bloomfield, for $150, property in the Afton Heights portion of the county.

Ella K. Krone to Henrietta Jackson, for $1,525, property near Tenth and Adams streets.

To Train Colored Girls.

A training school for colored nurses has been established in Charleston, S. C., by a colored woman physician, Dr. Lucy Hughes Brown, a graduate of the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania. The Southern people seem to take kindly in this innovation, and the enterprise is highly commended by the Charleston press.

IN POLICE COURT.

A COAL STEALING CASE THE ONLY ONE TODAY.

Judge D. L. Sanders of the police court had only one case before him this morning, and court lasted but a few minutes.

Hattie Jones, colored, was arraigned for stealing coal from an N. O. and St. L. car. She was warranted with several others yesterday, but was not arrested until last night. She was recognized under the arm of $100 for her appearance and the case continued.

Position Brought Little War.

The entire estate of William McDordale, late governor of the Bank of England, who died last month, amounts to only $5,000. He was an authority upon all questions of British finance and for years was a power in the operations of the English exchequer and the London Stock Exchange. His power was immense, but it had to be exercised in accordance with law and with strict regulations. His position instead of bringing him opportunities to gain wealth deprived him of such opportunities.

WITH THE SICK.

Mr. George P. Robinson, the tailor, was seized with congestion this morning about 2 o'clock and for a time was in a serious condition. A physician was called and after working with him for several hours brought him around and this morning he is much improved, but will likely not be out for several days.

Prof. Paul N. Peck has recovered after a two days' illness and called his school together again this morning. The pupils had been dismissed for two days.

Mr. John Moore of Senaib, Mo., who is attending the Smith Business college, is ill from pneumonia.

Mr. B. M. Philleby of the E. Rehkopf Saddlery Co. is out today after a several days' illness.

Mr. Samuel Potter of the Concord section is improving from his recent illness.

Captain John Carroll, at the city hospital, is no better today.

Mr. James E. Robertson is out again after a two weeks' illness.
